This is Austin. We asked him if he likes legos and his answer was “Yes, he likes it because you can build stuff.”

This is Annika. She is eating her snack which is goldfish and drinking water. She likes goldfish because it is her favorite.

This is Madison. She is putting different colored balls in the paint can, which she likes because she says “I can practice my colors.”